

Volunteer Opportunity: Fashion and Creative Arts Charity with Marketing, IT, Accountancy and Graphic Design Opportunities

Why you should go for it: Gain hands on professional skills in a fashion and creative arts training charity supporting disadvantaged communities gain fashion employment

Organisation:	Fashion and Creative Arts Training Charity
Internship Sectors:	Fashion, Creative Arts, IT, Graphic Design, Marketing and Accountancy
Location:	London
Organisation short Description:	This charity works with young people, and adults as well as vulnerable people to help them gain fashion employment or training, by equipping them with the skills they need.
Volunteering Tasks:	Supporting the organisation in a hands-on way, this is an opportunity to gain experience in a range of different areas based in the volunteer's interests such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Marketing including: creating social media posts, content creation, wider marketing including brochures etc ● Graphic Design including: Good working knowledge and understanding of Adobe InDesign and Adobe Photo shop and Illustrator; The ability to edit, modify and adjust graphic artwork; Understand the different types of typography and its uses for different purposes for online platforms; The ability to understand the difference between different forms of marketing tools such as brochures, posters, flyers and leaflets; Contributing creative ideas and new ways to enhance the visual representation of artwork and designs associated with the charity ● Accountancy including: Working with sales team and director to agreed budgets, sales volume, and time scales; Create, organise, and update financial reports relevant to fashion classes; Analyse and interpret financial data, sales figures, income and costs; Working with director in the management of business and financial strategy; Providing support and assistance to other departments when necessary ● IT including: supporting the IT infrastructure of the organisation; Improving running speed of computers; Computer repairs and App testing
Desired Skills:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Intermediate and above English – B2 2. Interest in fashion (not essential) 3. Relevant skills for area interested in volunteering with

Volunteer Opportunity: Charity Administration in London

Why you should go for it: Opportunity to develop your office administrative skills and experience in a UK working environment with a foundation doing inspiring and motivating work with young people across the world.

Organisation:	Foundation Supporting Young People
Internship Sector:	Charity Administration
Location:	London
Organisation short Description:	The purpose of this foundation is to build people up, ensuring that each individual finds what they are meant to do in life. Through mentoring, coaching, literature, entertainment, events and workshops they aim to provide a platform and pathway for young people all over the world find their callings. Over the last 7 years, this organisation has worked with over 4000 young people (aged between 10 and 30) from minority and disadvantaged backgrounds, and from across the world. They aim to equip young people to become their best version of themselves and to find a voice. Their objectives include: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Reducing mental health issues 2. Reducing homelessness 3. Reducing crime rates 4. Reducing unemployment 5. Increasing young people in education or training Workshops include journalism, blogging, poetry, film making and photography, as well as a wide range of employability skills.
Volunteering Tasks:	Supporting the organisation in achieving its wider goals, and getting an overview of how the foundation works, you will have an opportunity to assist with administration tasks including: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. day to day and general office administration 2. data entry 3. assisting with telephone calls and enquiries 4. assisting with emails 5. attending team meetings
Desired Skills:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. IT confident and literate 2. Enjoys learning new skills and has a can-do attitude to learning to use new tools and platforms 3. Intermediate and above English – B2 4. Good attention to detail

Volunteer Opportunity: Charity Retail & Sales for International Charity

Why you should go for it: Gain valuable retail and sales experience while practicing your English in a friendly and supportive shop environment

Organisation:	Charity Retail and Boutiques
Internship Sector:	Charity Retail & Sales
Location:	London and across the UK
Organisation short Description:	Oxfam has over 560 retail shops across the UK and over 23,000 volunteers. The charity has a mission to end poverty across the world, and in 2020/21 raised £105 million, supporting over 13.1 million vulnerable people. Online retail sales totalled £7.6 million and their resources promoting sustainable fashion were downloaded 60,000+ times. Reflecting the established second-hand retail market in the UK, Oxfam now boast a number of Boutique stores providing designer and luxury brands, and professional merchandising.
Volunteering Tasks:	Supporting the organisation in achieving its wider goals, and getting hands-on, valuable retail and sales experience including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Customer service ● Selling products ● Assisting with payments ● Window dressing ● Merchandising - arranging and displaying stock ● Assisting with stock storage and warehousing
Desired Skills:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Intermediate and above English – B2 2. Enjoys working with people 3. Can-do attitude to learning new things 4. Interest in fashion, retail and sales

Volunteer Opportunity: Youth Football Academy with Marketing, IT, Social Media, Education and Sport related Opportunities

Why you should go for it: Help disadvantaged students have a positive education through this school with football at its heart.

Organisation:	Football and Sports related Charity
Internship Sector:	IT, Marketing, Social media, Education, Sport and/or Social care
Location:	London
Organisation short Description:	This sports-based Youth & Community charity in London supports singles males aged 16-26 who are at risk. This includes providing supported accommodation as well as free vocational training, volunteering, and mentoring so that they are work ready. This includes helping them improve relationship building skills, provide life skills training, teach budgeting skills, and provide support to improve their mental health. The London Football charity has recently established a new school and academy with football at its heart, for pupils who find it hard to fit in with a standard school environment & have been excluded.
Volunteering Tasks:	Supporting the organisation in a hands-on way, this is an opportunity to gain experience in a range of different areas based in the volunteer's interests such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● IT ● Marketing ● Social media ● Education ● Sport ● Social care
Desired Skills:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Intermediate and above English – B2 2. Social care experience 3. Police check

Volunteer Opportunity: Working with People with Learning Disabilities and Autism

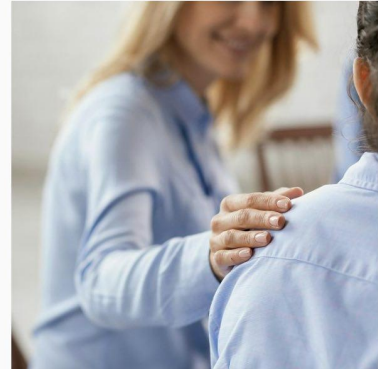

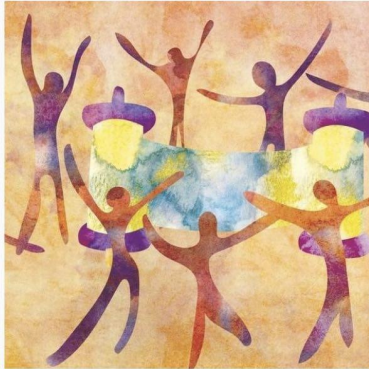

Why you should go for it: Gain valuable social care experience in a service centre located in London's popular Camden area

Organisation:	Social Care Charity
Internship Sector:	Social Care, supporting people with learning disabilities and their families
Location:	Camden, London
Organisation short Description:	Over the last 70 years, this charity has provided an invaluable service supporting 100s of people in London with Learning Disabilities, Autism and their families. This includes running regular events and activities, holiday play schemes such as wheelchair ice skating, Friday night socials, yoga and coffee mornings. They also assist with independent and assisted living support. This volunteer opportunity promises to provide a valuable learning experience, including learning how to promote independence, dignity and respect for people with a learning disability and interacting with non-verbal service users.
Volunteering Tasks:	Supporting the organisation in achieving its wider goals, and getting hands-on, social care experience including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Supporting Service Users ● Helping with activity sessions – sensory/games ● Escorting service users to lunch ● Helping service users with their clothes and personal effects ● Observing support sessions ● Assisting with organisation administration
Desired Skills:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Intermediate and above English – B2 2. Enjoys working with people with kind and caring outlook 3. Can-do attitude to learning new things 4. Interest in social care 5. Police Check Required

Volunteer Opportunity: Charity Nursing & Healthcare Assistant

Why you should go for it: gain hands on experience and full training of assisting residents in a high quality and well-respected healthcare setting

Organisation:	Prestigious provider of healthcare services
Internship Sector:	Healthcare and Nursing
Location:	Branches across London and Brighton
Organisation short Description:	Established in 1990, this organisation runs over 70 centres and services, and touches the lives of over 10,000 people every week. They provide a range of services including care homes; community centres; assisting with independent living; information, advice & support services; dementia services; disability services; homecare; and mental health services. Partners:  Awards:
Volunteering Tasks:	Supporting the residents in a hands-on way (with full training provided) including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Helping with daily personal hygiene for residents ● Learning how to move, handle, reposition, transfer residents from beds to chairs ● Assisting with helping residents to eat and drink ● Helping with daily activities ● Ultimately learning how to treat residents and families with care and respect but also to know limitations.
Desired Skills:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Intermediate and above English – B2 2. Enjoys working with people, warm and friendly 3. Can-do attitude to learning new things 4. Interest in healthcare and social care 5. Police Check Required

Volunteer Opportunity: IT and WordPress Charity Opportunity

Why you should go for it: Opportunity to gain IT and website experience using WordPress (the most popular website platform in the world) in a wide-reaching London Charity

Organisation:	Helping Young People discover and use their talents
Internship Sector:	Charity IT
Location:	London
Organisation short Description:	This charity works with young people aged 13-20 years old to help them discover & use their talents. They provide Young People with a safe environment in which to expand their minds, learn new skills and discover their talents in fun creative ways. They focus on building young people's key life skills, employability skills and ethical values through quality projects London wide, in response to the genuine needs of the young people and their communities. They aim to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Identify, develop and release the talents within a young person ● To provide young people with a safe environment in which to expand their minds, learn new skills and discover their talents in an enjoyable creative way ● To develop confidence, self-exploration & renewal of a young person ● Teach the young people the merits of good work ethics, hard work, team building, good leadership, wisdom & love ● Help young people take healthy ownership of the environments they operate within ● Equip young people with skills that can be applied to all areas of their lives, enabling them to become well rounded members of society that bring about positive change ● Build relationships with the community and local businesses to bridge the generational and social gap, creating community cohesion
Volunteering Tasks:	Supporting the organisation in a hands-on way including assisting with their IT and online services: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Updating their website using WordPress (training providing) ● Researching technical platforms to deliver online programmes ● Assisting with creation of online programmes ● Website Research
Desired Skills:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Intermediate and above English – B2 2. IT literate and confident 3. Can-do attitude to learning new things and new IT programmes

Volunteer Opportunity: Charity IT and Website

Why you should go for it: Opportunity to learn about WordPress in a dynamic business-related environment in London supporting greater entrepreneurship

Organisation:	Entrepreneurship Foundation
Internship Sector:	Charity IT and Website Developmentn
Location:	London
Organisation short Description:	This charity is the UK's leading entrepreneurship foundation, aiming to make the country more entrepreneurial. Their activities focus on advancing the entrepreneurship agenda for the UK, and are grouped under four key pillars <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Delivering entrepreneurial development programmes; ● Researching the state of entrepreneurship and how to unlock potential in neglected groups, communities and locations; ● Building thriving entrepreneurial communities; ● Engaging and informing policymakers and the public
Volunteering Tasks:	Supporting the organisation in a hands-on way including, this is an opportunity to assist with their IT and online services: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Refreshing Alumni details/Database ● Building a new website to present this information using a combination of Airtable, Softr (a no code website builder) and WordPress ● Test and fix the website and prepare for live release. ● General website maintenance and updates including preparing new pages to present upcoming blog and podcast content ● Potentially supporting an accelerator mapping project with data consolidation and presentation.
Desired Skills:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Intermediate and above English – B2 2. IT literate and confident 3. Interest in creating and maintaining websites 4. Can-do attitude to learning new things and new IT programmes

Volunteer Opportunity: Charity IT Technician

Why you should go for it: Opportunity to gain experience of working as an IT Technician with Windows Server and Active Directory, as well as maintaining hardware and software

Organisation:	Community Training and Career Guidance
Internship Sector:	Charity IT Technician
Location:	London
Organisation short Description:	This community-based organisation assists socially excluded members of the community such as ethnic minorities, refugees, asylum seekers and unemployed people in general. They provide impartial, reliable and professional training, information, career advice and guidance. Objectives include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Providing training, information, career advice and guidance to Refugees, migrants and other disadvantaged members of the society. • Promoting empowerment, self-advocacy and building the capacity of Black, Asian and Ethnic Minorities (BAME) and other disadvantage members of the society to the benefit of the wider community. • Providing a forum for the exchange of ideas, resource assistance and coordination with other community-based organisations. • Carrying out research and publications on issues of socio-economic development and human rights. • Setting up projects as well as collaborate with existing indigenous Non-Governmental Organisations (NGOs) in the developing world
Volunteering Tasks:	Supporting the organisation in a hands-on way including gaining experience of assisting as an IT technician getting involved in: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Maintaining computer networks (wireless, switch, router etc) • Improving systems and procedures • Providing IT support for hardware and standard software (1st and 2nd line support), maintaining Windows Server and Active Directory • Maintaining backups and disaster recovery processes • Software repairs, recovering and rebuild • Trouble shooting printing and server access problems • Maintaining printers, scanner and photocopier • Helping tutoring clients, maintaining log book • Maintaining Health and Safety standards • Attending team meetings
Desired Skills:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Intermediate and above English – B2 2. IT literate and confident 3. Knowledge of Windows Server, Active Directory 4. Interest in becoming IT technician 5. Good customer service, friendly and approachable 6. Can-do attitude to learning new things and new IT programmes

Volunteer Opportunity: Charity Office Administration

Why you should go for it: Opportunity to gain experience in office administration including supporting the organisation's Director.

Organisation:	Community Training and Career Guidance
Internship Sector:	Charity Office Administration
Location:	London
Organisation short Description:	This community-based organisation assists socially excluded members of the community such as ethnic minorities, refugees, asylum seekers and unemployed people in general. They provide impartial, reliable and professional training, information, career advice and guidance. Objectives include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Providing training, information, career advice and guidance to Refugees, migrants and other disadvantaged members of the society. ● Promoting empowerment, self-advocacy and building the capacity of Black, Asian and Ethnic Minorities (BAME) and other disadvantage members of the society to the benefit of the wider community. ● Providing a forum for the exchange of ideas, resource assistance and coordination with other community-based organisations. ● Carrying out research and publications on issues of socio-economic development and human rights. ● Setting up projects as well as collaborate with existing indigenous Non-Governmental Organisations (NGOs) in the developing world
Volunteering Tasks:	Supporting the organisation in a hands-on way including assisting: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● On the telephone, answering professionally, transferring to appropriate person, taking messages and answering enquiries. ● With mail, collecting and passing on, stamping etc ● With customer service including welcoming visitors ● With office administration including document filing, managing Director's diary, signing volunteers in and out, maintaining attendance register, handling petty cash.
Desired Skills:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Intermediate and above English – B2 2. IT literate and confident 3. Excellent Attention to Detail 4. Reliable, punctual, and quick to learn

Volunteer Opportunity: Charity Museum Administration

Why you should go for it: Opportunity to volunteer at central London Museum specialising in telling the story of London's history.

Exhibitions & Displays

Exhibitions & Displays

Exhibitions & Displays

Organisation:	Museum specialising in London History
Internship Sector:	Charity Museum Administration
Location:	London
Organisation short Description:	This London Museum located in the centre of the city near Kings Cross, specialises in the objects and stories which tell the history of London. They run regular exhibitions and events covering contemporary and historic art and craft.
Volunteering Tasks:	Supporting the organisation in a hands-on way including, this is an opportunity to gain experience of assisting with: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Processing visitor admissions 2. Assisting with selling shop stock and handling cash etc 3. Stewarding galleries 4. Carrying out small administrative tasks as and when necessary 5. Day to day running of a museums
Desired Skills:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Intermediate and above English – B2 2. Personable, friendly, and approachable 3. Experience of using tills and cash handling 4. Proactive, reliable, and punctual.

Volunteer Opportunity: Nutrition and Healthy Food with Nutrition, Customer Service, Finance and Administration Opportunities

Why you should go for it: Opportunity to put your love of food and healthy recipes into practical use with a charity providing support for 1000s of people across the UK.

Organisation:	Health Charity specialising in brain conditions
Internship Sector:	Health and Nutrition
Location:	Based in Liverpool
Organisation short Description:	This charity supports people who have been diagnosed with a brain or neurological condition. Such people can be at high risk of loneliness, losing control of their lives, unemployment, poverty and social isolation. The work of this organisation is to help these people rebuild their lives and achieve their potential. This is through practical help, emotional support and social activities supporting 1000s of people across the UK. They also provide support to families, friends and carers.
Volunteering Tasks:	Supporting the organisation in a hands-on way, this is an opportunity to gain experience in a range of different areas based in the volunteers' interests such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Nutritional advice, research and support (writing recipes etc) ● Assisting with the café ● Office Administration ● Financial Administration ● Fundraising
Desired Skills:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Intermediate and above English – B2 2. Love of food, nutrition and healthy eating (for nutritional role) 3. Personable, friendly and approachable 4. Proactive, reliable and punctual.

Volunteer Opportunity: Administration and Research

Why you should go for it: Opportunity to gain charity experience in an organisation providing hands on support to some of the most deprived communities in the world.

Organisation:	Humanitarian and Development Charity
Internship Sector:	Charity Administration and Research
Location:	London
Organisation short Description:	This British humanitarian and development organisation, has for 40 years, worked with millions of deprived and excluded families in some of the poorest and most remote communities in Afghanistan. This includes providing: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● emergency shelter and financial support so families can keep a roof over their heads; ● kitchen kits so that they can cook and safely store food; ● hygiene kits including towels, laundry soap and hand soap; ● items such as solar powered lamps, stoves and gas cylinders; ● emergency food parcels; ● blankets and the support they need to heat their homes and keep their families warm as the winter approaches.
Volunteering Tasks:	Supporting the organisation in a hands-on way, this is an opportunity to gain experience in a range of different areas based in the volunteer's interests such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Assisting with Office Administration ● Carrying out research ● Social media assistance including LinkedIn, Facebook and Twitter ● Updating company IT systems
Desired Skills:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Intermediate and above English – B2 2. Excellent proficiency in Microsoft Word and Excel 3. Clear understanding of social media forums such as LinkedIn, Facebook and Twitter 4. Experience of using content management database(s) 5. Ability to efficiently gather, analyse and interpret data 6. Ability to work independently or as part of a team 7. Experience working in a small office environment

Volunteer Opportunity: Quality Childcare Charity with Marketing, Operations and Childcare Opportunities

Why you should go for it: help children from all walks of life have an opportunity to play and have great childhood memories independent of their background.

Organisation:	Childcare
Internship Sector:	Marketing, Operations, Quality Assurance or Childcare
Location:	London
Organisation short Description:	This organisation has been providing quality professional out of school children's services since 1995. They provide quality childcare at an affordable price.
Volunteering Tasks:	Supporting the organisation in a hands-on way, this is an opportunity to gain experience in a range of different areas based in the volunteer's interests such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Marketing – supporting and coordinating marketing campaigns, updating social media accounts, taking publicity photos, organising photo folders, identifying suitable sources/forums to market the charity and other associated tasks. Completing targeted marketing at specific sites to increase the numbers of children attending. ● Operations – supporting the charity's operation team to provide support to Ofsted registered operational sites. Tasks will include supporting the Deputy Head of Operations with project-based work, researching opportunities, identifying training opportunities, completing consultations with children, resource management, supporting Centre Managers to ensure sites are ready for Ofsted and supporting staff/volunteers to complete training at our Head Office. Also gain practical experience of working with children through visiting sites daily to deliver activities with the support of qualified of play work staff. ● Quality Assurance – visiting sites and completing quality assurance audits to ensure sites are meeting required standards. This role will include holding discussions with Centre Managers and team members alongside completing written reports. Accompany the Deputy Head of Operations on quality visits to gain an insight into quality assurance, safeguarding and Ofsted standards. ● Holiday Club – supporting the operational coordination of our Ofsted regulated holiday clubs. This role will include preparing resources, identifying suitable trips, preparing activity programmes, publicising our holiday clubs and supporting the onsite delivery of the holiday

	clubs i.e. providing activities for children to take part in and making the holiday club a fun, enjoyable and positive experience. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Activities Based – organise and provide activities in a subject or area of specialism/interest. Such areas could include sports, performing arts i.e. dance/drama/singing, creative art, technology, gardening, photography, fashion and DIY.
Desired Skills:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Intermediate and above English – B2 2. Reliable, punctual 3. Experience of working with children and young people 4. Police check

Volunteer Opportunity: Preventing homelessness and keeping people off the streets

Why you should go for it: You can help make a huge difference to vulnerable and homeless people, by joining this organisation in their mission to end street homelessness.

Organisation:	Reducing Homelessness in London
Internship Sector:	Social Care
Location:	London
Organisation short Description:	This charity's mission is to help people who are homeless or vulnerable to find decent homes, build supportive relationships and lead fulfilling lives. This includes helping to support people who live in their own home and need support to manage and sustain a tenancy, manage their physical and health needs / conditions, and who may need additional support to manage and reduce their clinically dependent use alcohol and / or non-prescribed drugs. The organisation was listed as one of the top 100 not-for-profit companies to work for in 2020. By volunteering, you can help make a huge difference to vulnerable and homeless people and join this organisation in their mission to end street homelessness.
Volunteering Tasks:	Supporting the organisation in a hands-on way, this is an opportunity to gain experience in a range of areas based in the volunteer's interests such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● providing additional support to clients, to help clients reduce their isolation and to make positive connections with people and services ● Client Engagement and Support training; Motivational Interviewing ● Participating in and contributing to Team Meetings and 1-1 ● Working directly alongside paid employees of the Charities' Team, meeting Vulnerable Adults in person the Client's own home or in community locations ● Meet Socially isolated Clients to promote local services available to each Client, in their community ● Research, identify and utilise best practice approaches towards reducing isolation for our vulnerable client group, and to consider actions that can be taken to implement best practice approaches into Social Inclusion report. ● During Client facing interactions use a range of support interventions to deliver effective social inclusion support
Desired Skills:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Intermediate and above English – B2 2. Social care experience 3. Police check